

Want to be a Successful Writer? Do This Stuff

Want to be a Successful Writer? Do This Stuff - is unlike any other book about writing. It is not concerned with plotting, developing characters, and other mechanical things one can learn from a good writers conference. Instead, this book explains what it takes to be a successful writer. It examines, summarizes, and presents in clear language the elemental characteristics of hundreds of successful writers, those essential traits that have contributed to their success. Want to be a Successful Writer? Do This Stuff has been reviewed by some of the countrys most prestigious editors, agents, and publishers along with a number of best-selling authors. Each contributed important insights and suggestions. Every one of them agreed that beginning and intermediate writers should read this book. Editors and agents were unanimous in their contention that every characteristic they want to see in any writer they work with is presented clearly and succinctly in this publication.
