

This Man Jesus: The Gospel Narrative of His Life and Ministry

THIS MAN JESUS combines the gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John into a single chronological narrative, without omission and without paraphrasing. Based on the New International Version. THIS MAN JESUS eliminates the necessity of skipping from the gospel to another to read the entire life of Jesus. Because shepherds, angels, and wise men follow in chronological order, you can read the Christmas story without having to skip from Luke to Matthew to get the whole picture. You can conveniently assimilate the numerous details of various gospel events without having to read the four gospels one at a time. Not available before, this brand new type of book, a compacting of the Gospels, is edited by Irene Burk Harrell and Alie Harrell Benson, who wanted something readable, but dependably accurate, containing every fact and shade of meaning in the gospels, but without duplication. Their efforts have produced THIS MAN JESUS, a book that --helps the new or longtime Christian who wants to know all the facts about Jesus at once, and --helps a growing Christian read the whole gospel in a more comprehensive way.
