

Sticklers, Sideburns and Bikinis: The Military Origins of Everyday Words and Phrases (General Military)

Did you know they started hearing through the grapevine during the American Civil War, that ghettos originated in Venice or that deadline has a very sinister origin? Jam-packed with many amazing facts, Fighting Talk is a fascinating trip through the words and phrases that came to us from the military but nowadays are used by soldier and civilian alike. The sources of many are surprising and their original use is often far removed from that of today. From duds to freelancers and morris dancing to bikini this enthralling book describes the military origins of words and phrases that we use on a daily basis.
