

The Violet Hour : A Play

In this new play by the Tony Award-winning playwright of Take Me Out, a fledgling (and upper-class) World War I-era publisher is trying to decide which work to choose as his imprints first title. He has two manuscripts but lacks the funds to publish both. His difficult decision--whether to publish his lovers memoir or the novel written by his best friend--is further complicated by the arrival of a mysterious machine that produces pages predicting the future of the plays protagonists, affecting their lives and relationships in haunting and unexpected ways. The Violet Hour opened on Broadway on November 6, 2003, starring Robert Sean Leonard.
